Functions

Whatever you are celebrating we are sure that our club, known locally as the 'Civvy' can fulfil your needs whether it is a wedding, anniversary, private function or meeting.

Weddings

- The club is well equipped to hold weddings including the ceremony, meal and reception. Our function hall can seat 160 for the ceremony and reception, 120 for a table service wedding meal and has a good sized dance floor
- Club Manager Steven Banks will personally manage the details of the wedding
- We are ideally situated overlooking the South Inch for wedding photographs
- It is becoming an ever more popular choice for couples to hold their wedding ceremony in the club, for which we hold a licence. Please ask for further details.
- A piper can be recommended
- A 'dressing room' is available for the wedding party
- A photographer can be recommended if required and also entertainers.
- A menu catering for all tastes is available on request
